

Exclusive unique and homemade homewares

DECORATE the home for half the cost and receive more compliments with Indah Homewares. Their unique and handmade range is exclusive to Indah Homewares – brand new in the Mandurah Ocean Marina. Indah Homewares stocks handmade and hand-painted candles, Moroccan bed linen, table linen, jumbo floor cushions (donats) that can seat three people, cheerful artwork, and unique homewares from the market stall.

Alternatively a social butterfly can be arranged to attend a private home and conduct a soiree.

The jumbo donats, a Indah speciality, priced at only $250, are perfect for the home theatre room and are available in many different exotic colours. Extreme comfort is a given, visit the store and melt into the sample donat, customers may never want to leave. Their hand-made candles are exquisite and are one of the Indah Homewares' specialties. Indah pride themselves on the affordability of their products and claim the social butterfly private soiree's are what sets them apart.

Future social butterflies are always welcome to come and have a chat with proprietor Natalie Kemp about joining the ripple effect. Indah Homewares is open from 10am to 4pm Wednesday to Friday, 9am to 5pm on Saturday and Sunday.

Visit the store at stall 12 Dolphin Quay Markets in the marina or call 0412 645 592 or 9582 8999.
