

Boat show buzz at quay

SMILES, clowns and caricatures were the order of the day as locals and visitors dropped in to discover Dolphin Quay, Mandurah's premier waterfront retail complex, over the Boat Show weekend. There was free face-painting, balloons and musical entertainment, plus the return of popular caricaturist Luke Watson.

Loveable Dolphin Quay mascot Dippy Dolphin was always ready with a smile for the cameras and was kept busy handing out free $2, $5 and $10 Dolphin Dollars as he launched Mandurah's newest currency.

Neil Butterfield and Peggles.

Victoria Hoad and Elaine Esbenshad