

Antique evaluations

POPULAR antiques and collectables expert Robert Russell will be offering free valuations at the Dolphin Quay Antiques Fair at the Mandurah Ocean Marina this weekend.

A professional antique dealer with more than 35 years experience Mr Russell is also a noted author specialising in coins, medals, bank notes and Australian and Aboriginal artefacts.

He will hold live valuation sessions every 30 minutes. The event is from 10am until 4pm on both days.

Select professional and private antique dealers and specialist collectors, including members of the Peel Collectors Club, will be looking to buy and sell. They will display a selection of china and collectables, and will provide appraisals on everything from coins to 1970s funky stuff.

There won't be evaluations for modern jewellery or Chinese antiques.

Children's entertainment will be featured each day.
